2006 TOURNAMENT RESERVATION FORM

This form is issued as a courtesy to the teams of the BC Baseball League in order that league teams may receive first opportunity to enter tournaments administered by the league. This reservation form does not confirm entry into any BC Baseball League tournament; payment of your entry fee confirms your entry into a BC Baseball League tournament. Space will be filled in all BC Baseball League tournaments on a first-paid basis. This Tournament Reservation Form allows you to reserve a spot and be listed on the BC Baseball Web Site under the Look Who's Coming Section; however, payment must be made at the March 12, 2006 Coaches Meeting to keep your reservation(s).

WORK FEE: This below information will officially declare your intention to the BC Baseball League in regards to your team's commitment to work 24 hours for the BC Baseball League. Some teams will opt to forfeit their work deposit and, thus, will not be scheduled for any work time by the BC Baseball League. Please declare your team's decision below:

- We will work our 24 hours for the league and have our $300 deposit refunded. We understand we will need to sign up to work at one of the league's work days and we understand that we will be required to provide two helpers for two or three concession stand shifts during the season on league nights or league game weekends.
- We are opting opt out of the 24 hours of work, knowing we will forfeit our $300 deposit.

If your team is opting out of your work time, you do not need to complete any additional information on this form. If, however, your team intends to work its 24 hours, please complete the remaining information.

When your team's work time is completed, the BC Baseball League will be sending you a check for your work deposit ($300), providing you have paid all fees you owe the BC Baseball League. Please provide the name or account the check is to be written to and the address to which it should be sent.
